

Sinclair Broadcasting's planned airing of political propaganda, as news, days before the presidential election, is a blatant violation of the public interest.

Democracies do not behave this way. Totalitarian states behave this way. Media consolidation is hastening the end of the best designed constitutional democracy the world has ever known.

Please protect our American system, strengthen and enforce media ownership rules and honor the public interest.

Thank you,
Cathy Zar